

I have written a Haiku about the Flower Garden in Kennington Park. I “discovered” the flower garden during the first lockdown and came to the Garden often to find peace, quiet, and reflection in a busy, frantic world.

I have picked a Haiku as the format for my poem as the Garden reminds me of a Japanese Flower Garden so it seemed suitable to use a Japanese style of poetry.

My Haiku about the Kennington Park Flower Garden:

Step inside to find,
Peace on a bench of flowers
Senses calmed by scents
